

MOVING with WOMEN ♀

INTERNATIONAL
WOMEN'S DAY 2026

We asked the women of Transdev Canada:

What drives you?

What advice do you have for women considering a career in mobility?

Here is what they had to say.

INTERNATIONAL

MOVING with WOMEN

“I’m passionate about being part of a system that ensures patients get where they need to be safely, on time, and with dignity. Mobility is about more than transportation—it’s about access to care, independence, and peace of mind.”

Jasmeen K.
Dispatcher
NEMT, Transdev Manitoba

MOVING with WOMEN

“Learning, discovery, and problem-solving are my main sources of motivation. I enjoy making progress and finding solutions that make a difference.”

Victoria B.
Mechanic
Transdev Quebec

MOVING with WOMEN

“My advice is to value your perspective. Women bring communication strength, empathy, and collaborative leadership that make teams stronger. Take on challenging roles early because hands-on operational experience builds confidence and credibility. Build relationships across departments so you understand how the entire system works. Don't be afraid to advocate for yourself—ask for training, opportunities, and leadership roles. You deserve to take up space. And finally, find mentors. Both men and women can help guide your growth and open doors in your career.”

Lucy D.
Operations Supervisor
North Bay Transit, Transdev Ontario

MOVING with WOMEN

“I’m driven by operational excellence, building strong teams, fostering client relationships, and delivering consistent results. Engaged employees in a positive work culture drive service quality and client satisfaction. Creating environments where people take pride in their work motivates me every day.”

Sheila G.
General Manager
Transdev West

MOVING with WOMEN

“What drives me is knowing that we contribute every day to the well-being and safety of students. School transportation is part of their daily routine, and providing a positive and safe environment for their trips to and from school is an important responsibility for me. The different challenges that each day brings are also a great source of motivation.”

Terrilyn C.
Dispatcher
Student Transportation, Transdev Quebec

MOVING with WOMEN

“Believe in your abilities, stay confident in your voice, and don’t underestimate the impact you can make. This is a meaningful and rewarding career where compassion and leadership truly matter. Stay open to learning and don’t hesitate to step into opportunities for growth.”

Sukhpreet K.
Talent Acquisition Specialist
Transdev Ontario & Manitoba

MOVING with WOMEN

“My advice would be to follow your dreams. Mobility is a dynamic, growing industry with diverse career paths, from operations and driving to engineering, safety, planning, and leadership. Don’t let outdated stereotypes influence your decision—the industry is evolving, and there is increasing support for women at every level.”

Patricia R.
Operations Supervisor
NEMT, Transdev Ontario

MOVING with WOMEN

“I am driven by the belief that a strong learning and coaching culture creates strong employees and a strong team. I’m motivated by creating effective training that strengthens performance, and ensures a safety first attitude with our drivers to get students home safely every day.”

Lisa C.
Training Manager
Student Transportation, Transdev West

Mobility is for everyone.

To the women who keep our networks moving every day—thank you for inspiring the movers of tomorrow.
